

Thank you for your interest in Hunter Home Portraits!

I'd be delighted to discuss the details of my process and the typical time needed to create your custom painting. I work from photographs, which I can take if you are close to Boston, or you can provide. To capture the best natural lighting, the ideal time to shoot photos is early morning or late afternoon, which helps bring out contrast and shadow detail for greater dimensionality.

Prices range from $500 for an 8"x12" to $2,000 for an 18"x24". Once your painting is matted and framed, the final size will be larger.
